

International Reporting Fellowship with the Pulitzer center: Fully Funded

To hear from previous Fellows and learn how you can be the next Pulitzer Fellow please come to an info session on Thursday October 29, at 3pm, COM room 209.

The Pulitzer Center on Crisis Reporting—collaboration between BU's School of Public Health, Center for Global Health and Development and College of Communication—has hosted Student Fellows from Boston University since 2011. Students have reported from Nepal, Haiti, Mali, Zanzibar, Myanmar, Turkey, Uganda, Malawi and this winter from Cuba. The fellowships are a centerpiece of BU's Program on Crisis Response and Reporting, which examines the intersection of journalism and public health at times of crisis.
