100 EMPLOYMENT POLICIES

Boston University's employment policies govern the processes and activities that lead to the University's employment of the best qualified individuals. They establish the University's commitment to equal opportunity, affirmative action, non-discrimination, and reasonable accommodations and are consistent with applicable federal and state laws and regulations. The policies are listed below and the specific provisions are presented in the individual policy statements.

- 101 Interim Equal Opportunity and Title IX Policy
Effective October 15, 2024, the Interim Equal Opportunity and Title IX Policy replaced the Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy.

300 AUTHORIZED ABSENCES FROM WORK

The sixteen (16) policies that constitute Boston University's authorized absences from work are listed below. Individual statements are provided for each policy. These statements define employee eligibility requirements, length of absence, compensation during the absence, and request and approval responsibilities. When applicable, the statements also define accrual rates, conditions of returning to work and other provisions of the policy. Each statement concludes by listing the other policy statements (related policies) that were cited in its text.

With the exception of those authorized deductions from pay permitted under the Fair Labor Standards Act, exempt employees will receive their full salary for any week in which they perform work for the University, and it is the policy of the University to prohibit improper deductions from the salary of exempt employees. Exempt employees who believe that they have been subject to an improper deduction should immediately inform their supervisor who shall take appropriate steps to investigate and resolve the complaint. Should the University determine that an improper deduction was made, the employee will be reimbursed in the amount of the improper deduction.

400 GENERAL POLICIES

Boston University has several personnel policies that, for the purposes of this Handbook, are categorized as General Policies. They include policies that govern and establish guidelines for employee conduct in several areas. The policies are listed below, and the specific provisions are presented in the individual policy statements.

- 401 University Rules of Conduct
- 402 Conflict of Interest
- 403 Patent Policy – (Please see the Intellectual Property Policy)
- 404 Solicitations and Distribution
- 405 Copyright Policy \(Employees\)
- Fitness for Duty Policy

The University's Fitness for Duty Policy establishes that University employees required to be fit for duty when they come to work and to remain so at all times while they are working. This requirement applies to all employee responsibilities. The University encourages employees to voluntarily: (i) seek assistance for physical or mental condition(s) before their work performance is adversely affected by such conditions; and (ii) self-report a fitness for duty issue to their dean or administrative unit leader and to proactively address the impact of such condition(s) on their ability to perform their duties in a safe and successful manner. If an employee believes they require a reasonable accommodation to allow them to perform their essential job duties safely and/or successfully they should reach out to the Equal Opportunity Office. The University's Fitness for Duty Policy is available on the University's Policies webpage [url: <https://www.bu.edu/policies/fitness-for-duty-policy/>].
