

Popular Scriptures in Turkish Islam

mevlid • ilahi • nefes • deyiş

Many devotional and liturgical poems composed in the Turkish language by Süleyman Çelebi (early 15th c.), Yunus Emre (13th c.) and others still reserve a very popular place in Islam in Turkey.

Join us for a lecture on Anatolian Islamic musical and ritualistic traditions that use the Turkish language in their poetry, followed by a Q&A and a lively 40-minute recital featuring the DÜNYA ensemble.

Thursday, December 10, 6:30pm
Boston University, GSU Auditorium

Reception to follow in the GSU Back Court

For more information, visit us at www.bu.edu/scriparts

Featuring a recital of Turkish Islamic music by Boston's DÜNYA Ensemble

