

The Sex and Sexualities Symposium (SASS) is pleased to present:

The Third Annual Brandeis Undergraduate Sexualities Research Conference

Thursday, April 7th 2011

Multipurpose Room, Intercultural Center
1pm-5pm

Come and support sexualities research at Brandeis in an afternoon of presentations by Brandeis undergraduates

Keynote Address: “InQueeries: The Possibilities and Limitations of Queer Theory in Sexualities Research” by Dr. Catherine Connell, Assistant Professor, Boston University
1pm-2pm

From Patriarchal to Progressive: Reconstructing Identities
2pm-3pm

(Re)Writing Histories: Transformative Performances of Cultural, Sexual, and Gender Identities Greg Storella, '11

The Infamous Date Rape: Exploring Masculinities in Alternative Hip-Hop Jamie Erdheim, '11

(Un)dressing History: Genealogies of Female Embodiment in Marisa Carnesky's Jewess Tattoos Victoria Wiet, '11

Queering Bodies: Visibility and Representations of “Other”
3-4pm

The Queer Body: Henna and Homosexualities Noam Sienna, '11

Visibility and the Transgender Movement Aviva Paiste, '13

Talk About Body: Developing Theories of Queer Feminist Visuality
Sophia Glass, '11

The Evolution of Masculine Cultural Stereotypes in the Media
4-5pm

“Can I Have Yo’ Numba?”: The Media’s Representations of Social Scripts Zoe Messinger, '13

The Warrior Jew Lives On: An Analysis of the Legacy of Ari ben Canaan in Three Contemporary Films David Bengier, '14

Proudly supported in part by the Brandeis Pluralism Alliance