

WANTED

Course Assistant(s)

for

EPIDEMICS: PLAGUES, PEOPLES AND POLITICS

(from the Plague of Athens to Ebola/next epidemic)

a cross-listed course in Sociology and Community Health at Tufts University
Spring Semester 2016

Class meets Mondays and Wednesdays
4.30-5.20pm, 25 January - 2 May

Candidates should have a background in any of History, Sociology, Anthropology, Political Science and/or a health-related field. Responsibilities include attending lectures, leading some discussions (in class time rather than sections), assisting students with research projects, evaluating student work, and holding office hours.

Interested candidates should send:

c.v.
evidence of teaching experience and name of one reference to:

Taylor/TA search
111B Eaton Hall
Sociology Department
Tufts University
Medford MA 02155

or email as attachments to:
rtaylor@tufts.edu