

Program & Location	Semester Offered	Number of Participants	Language Instruction	Course Requirements	Timing Issues	Notes
English Language Programs
The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong, China	Fall or Spring	Four	English	Four courses		Students cannot choose more than six credits worth of non-law courses
Tsinghua University, Beijing, China	Fall	Four	English	12 credit hours (not including language course credits)	You will need to arrive in Beijing by mid-August; therefore, if you have a summer internship, you will likely need to end your internship early
Harris Manchester College, Oxford University, Oxford, England	Spring	Six	English	Introduction to British Legal System and British Government, two tutorials and two lectures		On-campus housing is included with this program
University College London, London, England	Fall	Four	English	At least five (and no more than six) courses		A minimum BU Law GPA of 3.0 is required, participants are encouraged to apply for CAS number/Tier 4 visa (in case internship opportunities arise)
Bucerius Law School, Hamburg, Germany	Fall	Four	English	A minimum of six classes, including one required course: "Introduction to German Law – Survey Course"
The Buchmann Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University, Tel Aviv, Israel	Spring	Four	Hebrew or English	Five courses	See Notes Column	Tel Aviv has informed us that students who take courses offered during spring session 1 will be permitted to schedule early exams, in order to receive grades in time for graduation/bar certification. That being stated, a VERY limited amount of courses will be offered during spring session 1 (no more than 6-10 courses); therefore, students seeking a large catalog of courses to choose from should participate during their 2L year.
Leiden University, Leiden, Netherlands	Fall or Spring	Four	English	Four courses	See Notes Column	Leiden's spring semester runs considerably later than BU Law's spring semester. In the past, participating 3L's have arranged to take their exams in April, in order for final transcripts to be received by BU Law in time for commencement and bar certification. We cannot make any guarantees that transcripts will be sent in a timely manner, even if previous arrangements are made. Therefore, 3L's are encouraged to participate in the fall semester.
The National University of Singapore, Singapore	Fall or Spring	Four total (including dual-degree program)	English	Four courses	See Notes Column	As the fall semester in Singapore starts far in advance of BU Law's fall term, students with summer internship opportunities should plan to participate during the spring semester. While Singapore will send a certified letter confirming that 3L participants passed all of their courses prior to Commencement, final transcripts will not be available until late July. This certified letter meets the criteria for BU Law's commencement requirements and for the bar certification requirements of some, but not all, state bar exams. Any 3L student interested in participating should review the requirements the state bar exam he or she intends to sit for prior to participating in the spring semester.
Universidad Pontificia Comillas (ICADE), Madrid, Spain	Fall	Four total (including dual-degree and Spanish language programs)	English	30 ECTS credits (one half of the MIEBL program)	You will need to arrive in Madrid by mid-August to secure housing; therefore, if you have a summer internship, you will likely need to end your internship early	It is quite difficult to find housing in Madrid without a Spanish bank account or without some Spanish language speaking abilities.
Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva	Fall or Spring	Two	English or French	At least five courses	See Notes Column	Geneva's spring semester runs considerably later than BU Law's spring semester. In the past, participating 3L's have arranged to take their exams in April, in order for final transcripts to be received by BU Law in time for commencement and bar certification. We cannot make any guarantees that transcripts will be sent in a timely manner, even if previous arrangements are made. Therefore, 3L's are encouraged to participate in the fall semester. Additionally, it is important to note that the private housing rental market in Geneva is notoriously difficult to navigate; thus, participants are encouraged to begin their search for housing well in advance of the start of the program.
Foreign Language Programs

Universidad Pontificia Comillas (ICADE), Madrid, Spain	Fall or Spring	Four total (including dual-degree and English language programs)	Spanish	At least four courses	The spring semester for the regular Spanish curriculum runs into late May, so participants will likely not be back in time for graduation or bar preparation courses. Therefore, 3Ls who want to study at ICADE in Spanish should study in the fall.
The University of Buenos Aires, Buenos Aires, Argentina	Fall or Spring	Four	Spanish	At least three courses	See Notes Column	UBA's "spring" semester runs late, considerably past BU Law's spring semester. For 3Ls, this means that there is no guarantee that you will be able to complete your UBA studies prior to BU Law graduation, or receive final transcripts from UBA in time to meet bar certification requirements (which can be as early as mid-June). 3L students are therefore encouraged to consider the fall program. Likewise, 2Ls who are interested in spring term studies at UBA will need to make special arrangements with their summer employers to begin work in early July. (Students have occasionally arranged to complete a portion of their "summer" clerkships in January/February, prior to going overseas.)
Universite Jean Moulin, Lyon 3, Lyon, France	Fall or Spring	Four	French	Introduction to French Law and at least three elective courses chosen from a selection of classes in French, international and comparative law, including at least one with a travaux dirigés (TD) component.	Both the fall and spring semester in Lyon run considerably past BU Law's semester dates. In the past, BU Law students have been permitted to schedule early exams in both the fall and spring semesters. Participating students should meet with professors and verify early exam dates during the registration and add/drop period.
Université Panthéon- Assas (Paris II), Paris, France	Fall or Spring	Four total (including dual-degree program)	French	Introduction to French Law and at least three elective courses, including at least one with a travaux dirigés (TD) component.	See Notes Column	Paris II's "spring" semester runs late, considerably past BU Law's spring semester. For 3Ls, this means that there is no guarantee that you will be able to complete your Paris II studies prior to BU Law graduation, or receive final transcripts from Paris II in time to meet bar certification requirements for the summer 2014 bar (which can be as early as mid-June). Therefore, 3L students are therefore encouraged to participate during the fall semester. Likewise, 2Ls who are interested in spring term studies at Paris II may need to make special arrangements with their summer employers to begin work in early July.
The University of Florence, Florence, Italy	Fall or Spring	Four	Italian	Three courses	See Notes Column	Florence's "spring" semester runs late, considerably past BU Law's spring semester. For 3Ls, this means that there is no guarantee that you will be able to complete your Florence studies prior to BU Law graduation, or receive final transcripts from Florence in time to meet bar certification requirements for the summer 2014 bar (which can be as early as mid-June). Therefore, 3L students are therefore encouraged to participate during the fall semester. Likewise, 2Ls who are interested in spring term studies may need to make special arrangements with their summer employers to begin work in early July.
Dual Degree Programs - Prior to their departures, all participants must have completed BU Law's professional responsibility and practical skills requirements. Students must also have completed – or have a specific, approved plan to complete – the upper-class writing requirement.
Université Panthéon- Assas (Paris II), Paris, France	Full Year	Four total (including French language program)	English	To earn 26 credits, participants must complete the program's 12 seminars and complete a 2-credit independent research paper under the supervision of a BU Law faculty member. Participating students must secure the commitment of the faculty supervisor prior to the start of the program.	See Notes Column	While all courses are taught in English, all participants are encouraged to have a strong grasp of the French language. The Paris housing market is notoriously difficult to navigate; therefore, participants are encouraged to arrive in Paris at 4-5 weeks prior to orientation in order to secure housing.

The National University of Singapore, Singapore	Full Year	Four total (including semester exchange program)	English	To earn 26 credits, participants must complete a minimum of 10 courses for 40 NUS credits and complete a 2-credit independent research paper under the supervision of a BU Law faculty member. Participating students must secure the commitment of the faculty supervisor prior to the start of the program.	See Notes Column	Fall semester orientation is held in early August; therefore, participants will likely need to make arrangements with employers to leave summer internships early. Additionally, Singapore's spring semester runs somewhat later than BU Law's spring semester. While Singapore will send a certified letter confirming that 3L participants passed all of their courses prior to Commencement, final transcripts will not be available until late July. This certified letter meets the criteria for BU Law's commencement requirements and for the bar certification requirements of some, but not all, state bar exams.
Universidad Pontificia Comillas (ICADE), Madrid, Spain	Full Year	Four total (including English and Spanish language semester exchange programs)	English	To receive 26 BU Law credits, students must (1) complete all compulsory courses offered in the MIEBL program and (2) complete a 2-credit independent paper under the supervision of a BU Law faculty member. Participating students must secure the commitment of the faculty supervisor prior to the start of the program. To receive the ICADE MIEBL degree, they must also complete the MIEBL program's required master's thesis .	See Notes Column	Fall semester orientation is held in early August; therefore, participants will likely need to make arrangements with employers to leave summer internships early. Internships in Madrid are guaranteed for all participants.
