

The Program in Scripture and the Arts in the Boston University Department of Religion is pleased to present

“RELIGION AND CHILDREN’S LITERATURE”

a conversation with

FRANCISCO X. STORK

author of Marcelo in the Real World, forthcoming from Arthur A. Levine Books in March 2009

Francisco Stork was born in 1953 in Monterrey, Mexico. Today he works in Boston as an attorney for a state agency that develops affordable housing. He is the author of two novels in addition to Marcelo in the Real World. For more information, please visit his Web site at <http://franciscostork.com>.

and

CHERYL KLEIN

Senior Editor for Arthur A. Levine Books

Cheryl Klein began her career at Arthur A. Levine Books as an editorial assistant in 2000. She has worked closely with authors and illustrators including Lisa Yee, Katherine Paterson, Guillaume Prevost, Kate Constable, David Small, Elizabeth Bunce, and Saxton Freymann, and she also served as the continuity editor for the last three Harry Potter books.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2008, 4-5PM

Elie Wiesel Center for Judaic Studies, room 201
147 Bay State Road

This talk is part of Professor Donna Freitas’s seminar, “Religion and Children’s Literature.”

For more information, contact Program Coordinator Cristine Hutchison-Jones at 617-358-1754 or crissy@bu.edu.